

The Jefferson EDGE

Achievements

Funded the development of the Churchill Technology and Business Park

Conceived the Patrick F. Taylor Science and Technology Academy; $36 million facility opened in the park in August 2013

Built JEDCO headquarters and JEDCO Business Innovation Center

The number of students enrolled in the Jefferson Parish Public School System has increased from 45,585 in 2010 to 46,100 in 2012

JPPSS has seen a 17% increase in its State District Performance Score

There are 19 A & B schools in JPPSS, compared to just 7 in 2010

Assisted in the creation of the Fat City T.I.F. District in 2008

New zoning ordinances passed in 2010

Improvements made to 18th Street, the major road running through Fat City

$14 billion spent regionally in hurricane protection improvements

$1 billion spent to improve the internal drainage infrastructure

13 safe houses built in Jefferson Parish pump stations

$3 million spent in beautification projects, including providing sculptures along major corridors around the parish

Assisted in the initial funding and development of Family Gras

Assisted in the Parish adoption of Envision 20/20, the parish's first comprehensive land-use plan

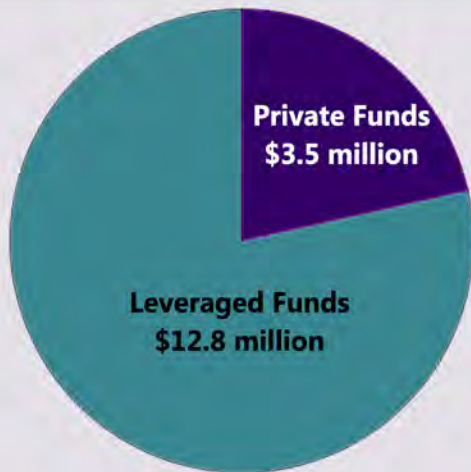

Join us to exact change and to mold our vision for the future of Jefferson Parish.

The Jefferson EDGE

Private Funding

From 2001-2013, the Jefferson EDGE received $3.5 million in private funding.

Total: $16,307,250

Leveraged Funding

$3, 507, 250 in private funds leveraged

$12.8 million for EDGE projects.

For every dollar of private funding, the EDGE leveraged $3.66 in additional funding.

$8 million

Spent on development of the Churchill Technology and Business Park

$4.2 million

Spent to build the JEDCO headquarters and the Business Innovation Center

$800K

Spent on local and national marketing

Only $10,000 of EDGE funding goes towards administrative costs per year.